2016 – 2018

Id-Dgħajsa tar-Riħ

Matthew Pandolfino

Bormla

This installation is both visually and conceptually striking, blending local and international elements to create a narrative—a fantastical anecdote. It incorporates transportation technologies that have stood the test of time.

Ras il-Ħuta

Mario Sammut

Marsaskala

This contemporary installation represents the changes that Wied il-Għajn has undergone over the years

Reflections and Connections

Mary Portelli

Għajnsielem

The mosaic stairs project, conceived by Mary Portelli, was created with the participation of Hermine Sammut, the Għajnsielem Local Council, and the general public.

Logħob ta' Tfuliti

Charles Sammut

Had-Dingli

Installations around Ħad-Dingli made from recycled materials, showcasing various types of traditional Maltese games.

Haġarna

Victor Agius

Ix-Xagħra

#Hagarna weaves together narratives connected to the community of Xagħra, where Victor Agius's public sculpture is permanently installed in the public gardens overlooking 8th September Avenue, the village's main street.

Misraħ il- Kliem Mistur

Adrian Abela

Għar Lapsi

This installation at Għar Lapsi, on the outskirts of Siggiewi by Adrian Abela, is inspired by the sounds of the sea waves and how they appear as waveforms in electronic form through technological devices
